MEMORIAL BRIDGE DISCUSSED TODAY

Alexandrians at Capitol This Morning Ask Favorable Report.

CONFERENCE IS HELD.

Addresses Made Before Conferees of House on Public Buildings Measure at Today's Meeting.

In an effort to secure the support of the three members of the conference committee of the House of Representatives on the public buildings bill to the appropriation of $5,000,000 added by the Senate committee for the building of the memorial bridge connecting Washington with Arlington, a number of members of the Mount Vernon Avenue Association, together with several ladies and other Alexandrians went to Washington this morning where they appeared before the committee.

The Alexandrians who were present were as follows: Mrs. Charles C. Carlin, Mrs. Wm. B. Smoot, Mrs. William A. Smoot, Mrs. Eva G. Mushback, Mrs. John H. Foster, Mrs. William J. Boothe, Miss Carrie Stribling, William B. Smoot, president of the Mount Vernon Avenue Association, M. B. Harlow, secretary of the Association, Samuel G. Brent, Albert Smoot, Jr., E. E. Downham, J. M. Hill, Alexander J. Wedderburn, Albert D. Brockett and Robert S. Barrett.

In addition there were present Glenn Brown, a former Alexandrian, and member of the Art Commission appointed by President Taft and Mrs. Sternberg, wife of General Sternberg, former surgeon general of the navy.

The three house conferees, Representatives John L. Burnett, of Alabama, Frank Clark, of Florida, and Richard W. Austin, of Tennessee, met the delegation in the handsome committee room of the Judiciary and were introduced by Hon. Charles C. Carlin, representative of the Eighth District.

Mr. Brown was the first speaker to present the bridge proposition. He gave a brief description of its architecturalfeatures and said that it would carry out the ideas advanced by General Washington when he first planned the National Capital and was a part of the general scheme of the commission which he represented for the beautifying of Washington. He told the Congressmen that it would shorten the distance between Washington and Arlington from two miles to less than three quarters of a mile.

M. B. Harlow, the next speaker, said that the memorial bridge was a necessary step to the construction of the Mt. Vernon Avenue. It would greatly adhance the value of the government's property on the Virginia side of the Potomac and would permit the reclamation of about 200 acres of land which belong to the government.

Mrs. William A. Smoot told of the interest which was exhibited by the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution in the plan to build Mount Vernon Avenue and said that every year greater interest was being shown by the Daughters in the project. Naturally, she said, the construction of the bridge was necessary before the avenue could be built.

Mr. Carlin gave a brief history of the measures which have been before Congress for the construction of bridge and the highway and plead with the committee measure because they might have the opinion it was not attached to the right bill.

At the conclusion of the addresses, Representative Burnett stated that while he might favor the building of the bridge he did not think that it should not have been made a part of the publi cbuildings act by the Senate.

It was the opinion of those present at the meeting that the appropriation for the bridge would be stricken out by the House unless Senators Martin and Swanson were able to insist that it be retained.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Secretary Knox has issued a notice to the public that the income tax amendment is now a part of the Constitution, having been ratified by more than the constitutional two-thirds of the States.

Many persons were killed at Gijon Spain, today while rocks were being blasted in the harbor. The dispatch said it was feared the death list would reach 60.

Following the supposed dramatic suicide of Mrs. Homer Margerum at Washington, Pa., last night in her father's home, there came a sensational sequel in the arrest of Wilson Reedy, 30 years old ,a prominent married man, through jealousy of whom Mrs. Margerum was thought to have ended her life. He was committed to the county jail on a charge of manslaughter. This development was the result of a day of investigation, and followed direct charges by the parents and sister of Mrs. Margerum.

Cecil Williams, a negro, living at Middleton, Del., came within an ace of being embalmed yesterday. He was pronounced dead by an undertaker and was about to receive an injection of the fluid when he opened his eyes. He was only drunk. When the undertaker pierced the negro's skin preparatory to draining his heart, Williams jumped up and knocked him down. Then he jumped through a window and ran three miles. He has taken the pledge.

It was said that Horace Wylie, a Washington real estate operator, and Mrs. Elinor Hoyt Hichborn, with whom he disappeared three years ago, are now living in a beautiful villa in the outskirts of Paris under the name of Mr. and Mrs. Wilborn. The elopement caused more than the usual nine days' stir in Washington society, and led to the suicide of Phillip Hichborn, the deserted husband. Since then nothing has been heard from them until now. It is said the elopers have settled down to domestic life, and that a child two years old is now a member of the family. Mrs. Horace Wylie, the deserted wife, steadfastly refuses to give the desired divorce to her husband.

The United States government took official recognition of the claim of Dr. Frederick F. Friedmann to the discovery of a cure for tuberculosis, when, by the order of the surgeon general, a physician of the United States marine hospital service, Dr. Milton H. Foster, was sent to meet the young German physician on his arrival in New York yesterday aboard the steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie.

Dr. Benjamin Eli Smith, managing editor of the Century Dictionary and editor-in-chief of other literary works, died yesterday at New Rochelle, N. Y., at the age of 5 years. He was formerly an instructor in mathematics at Yale University and professor of philosophy and metaphysics at Johns Hopkins University. Dr. Smith was a son of Rev. Eli Smith, who collaborated with Mr. Dr. Van Dyke in the first translation of the Bible into the Arabic language. He was born in Beirut, Syria, where his parents were missionaries.

It was so cold in Paterson, N. J., yesterday that 5,000 striking silk operatives who quit work in various mills went back to their machines within an hour rather than shiver in the streets. At 11 o'clock the millowners said they were running with full force. The strikers went out for an eight-hour day and a minimum wage of $12 a week. The strike order was issued by the Industrial Workers of the World. Elizabeth Gurley Flynn and her companion, Carlo Presta, leaders in the strikes of garment workers and waiters in New York, were arrested when they refused to leave Paterson yesterday. With other leaders of the Industrial Workers of the World, they were waiting to address a meeting of silk workers when the police gave them their choice of taking the first train back to New York or going to jail.

CITY FATHERS MET AGAIN LAST NIGHT

Large Volume of Business Relating to Street Improvements Presented.

TWO HOURS' SESSION.

City Will Supplement Amount Contributed by Electric Railway Company for South Royal Street.

All the Aldermen were present when the board was called to order last night.

A number of measures looking to street improvements in various sections of the city were introduced by the joint committees on streets and finance. They will be found in the official proceedings. Among the streets to be improved will be Washington street from Royal to St. Asaph, Pitt street from King to Cameron, and Royal street form Prince to Wilkes. As has been stated, the city will be compelled to pay about$2,000 for the work on the latter thoroughfare. The electric railway company will contribute the remainder—$7,500.

The vote in all cases was unanimous.

A petition of J. H. Chillcott for permission to erect a frame structure on the east side of Henry street, between Duke and Wolfe, was received from the Common Council, that board having granted the permission. The Aldermen refused to concur in their action and referred the petition to the committee on streets.

An adverse report of the committee on light on a petition of sundry citizens for a gaslight on Royal street, between Cameron and Queen, was received from the Common Council.

Mr. Ballenger spoke against concurring, and said a vacant lot was on the street which was kept in an unsanitary condition, an dthe light would be a great convenience to people who resided in the locality and would tend to abate a nuisance. He wanted to go on record as voting against concurrence.

After further interchange of opinion the action of the Common Council was concurred in—ayes, Messrs. Hill, Fitzgerald, Summers and Mr. President—4. Noes, Messrs. Ballenger, Ogden and Field—3.

The Aldermen concurred in the action of the Common Council on all the other papers sent in.

Common Council.

All the members of Council were present last night except Messrs. Graham and Spinks.

The committee on light reported unfavorably on the placing of a gas burner on the west side of Royal street between Cameron and Queen street, and this report was adopted.

Mr. Smith, chairman of the special committee on rates on the electric railway, reported progress on a resolution looking to the restoration of family tickets.

A resolution introduced by Mr. Swan, for raising the salary of the superintendent of gas from $1,000 to $1,200 was referred to the committee on Finance and Light.

Mr. Birrell introduced an ordinance prohibiting the showing of any moving picture or pictures representing a commission or attempted commission of a crime. Mr. Birrel stated that this was introduced at the request of Police Justice Caton, who framed the measure.

A petition was received from J. H. Chilcott asking permission to erect a one-story brick and metal shed on the east side of Henry street between Duke and Wolfe Sts. This was agreed to, but later the petition came back from the Aldermen non-concurred in and referred to the committee on strets. Council receded from its former action and concurred in this reference.

A resolution introduced by Mr. Birrell granting Armour and Co., the right to slaughter in their building at the corner of Henry and Cameron streets until some slaughter house shall be designated under the provisions of the health law, was referred to the Committee on Health and General Laws. This was accompanied by a letter from Mr. Morris, manager for Armour and Co. He stated that be understood that some exceptions were being made and he did not with his company to break the law in any particular.

An ordinance providing for the paving of Cameron street from Pitt to Royal with vitrified brick was passed by the Board of Aldermen, and laid over under the law.

An ordinance providing for the paving of Cameron street from Pitt to St. Asaph street with either asphalt block or tar macadam came in from the Aldermen, having been passed by that body. After this ordinance had been read several times Council decided that it needed some change in form, and it was recommitted to the Committee on Streets and Finance.

An ordinance for the paving of Royal street from Prince to Wilkes street, was laid over under the law, as was the ordinance appropriating $2,800 for the conveyance of the northwest sewer, and one appropriating $1,300 for a cobble roadway on on Pendleton street from Washington to Pitt and one appropriating $1,700 for a cobble roadway on Princess street from Lee to St. Asaph.

Eight hundred dollars was appropriated for resurfacing Washington street from Queen to Wythe. Mr. Birrel lstated that this street should be saved by the improving of the parallel street which would carry most of its traffic.

A number of other matters coming in from the Board of Aldermen were acted in without discussion.

There was little debate and all the measures were passed without discussion, the lower board being in a particular happy mood.

Common Council concurred in the resolution adopted by the Board of Aldermen that bids should be received for the city printing and contracts left to the lowest bidder effective on April 1st.

AFTER GOVERNORSHIP.

Roanoke Lawyer May be Virginia Republicans' Nominee.

S. Harris Hoge, of Roanoke, a brother of the late J. Hampton Hoge, who was the Republican candidate for Governor against ex-Gov. Andrew Jackson Montague, is looming up as the Republican candidate for Governor in Virginia this year.

Congressman Bascom Slemp, State chairman and leader of the republican party forces, says he find a strong sentiment in the State for the Roanoke lawyer's nomination.

The Republican Congressman made it plain that he is not comitted to Mr. Hoge's candidacy.

Mr. Slemp has also yielded to the wooing o fthe woman suffragette. The Virginia Republican leader said yesterday he will vote for equal suffrage an issue in the coming Gubernatorial fight in Virginia.

Acquittal of Sneed.

John Beal Sneed, a wealthy West Texas ranch owner, was yesterday declared not guilty of the murder of Al Boyce, jr., at Amarillo, Texas, last September.

Sneed shot Boyce to death on a street in Amarillo upon what was said to have been their first meeting after Boyce eloped with Mrs. Sneed. Al Boyce, jr., was the second member of the Boyce family Sneed had killed on account of the elopement. The first killing was that of Captain Albert Boyce, sr., whom Sneed shot in a Fort Worth Hotel. Sneed's defense was that he feared for his life, and that Captain Boyce was aiding his son, Al, in the elopement.

On October 13, 1913, Mrs. Sneed had proposed to her husband that she leave Texas with Boyce and go to South America. A few days later Sneed placed his wife in a sanatarium near Fort Worth.

Early in November Boyce and Mrs. Sneed eloped. Sneed spent $20,000 in searching the country for them. They were found at Winnipeg, Canada, where Boyce was held on charges of theft made by Sneed at Fort Worth. Sneed went to Winnipeg, persuaded his wife to return to Texas and the charges against Boyce were dropped.

Several months later Boyce returned to Texas, and Sneed at his trial declared that some time before he killed Boyce in Amarillo he had lived in expectation of death at any time at the young man's hands.

RECONSTRUCTION WORK IN MEXICO

Begin Task of Subduing Rebels Under General Emilian Zapata.

MAY PROVE PLACABLE

Offers of Loans Totalling $30,000,000 Said to Have Been Accepted by New York Institutions.

Mexico City, Feb. 26.—Whether the Huerta government will have the task of subduing the rebels under General Emiliano Zapata, or that leader will peaceably accept the new administration will likely be settled today. Zapata is en route here today to sign a peace agreement, according to reports given out by the government.

Should Zapata agree to suport Huerta it is conceded that a great step will have been taken toward the pacification of the country as he has been the most constant and destructive fighter in the field during the last two years. It is believed that was a federal officer Zapata would be able to disperse other rebels in the south.

Once Zapata is in Mexico City it is considered certain here that his reign as a rebel will be ended. Should he refuse to accept Huerta's terms, recent occurrences indicate that he would be arrested and probably shot.

Although a report as to the financial standing of Mexico today showed there was less than 200,000 pesos left in the treasury, the new government will not need money. Offers of big loans said to total $30,000,000 have been accepted from New York financial firms.

The government admitted today that rebel activity has been of a serious nature when large bodies of troops were sent out to repair and guard railroads. Mexico City is cut off from rail communication in all directions except toward Vera Cruz, owing to destruction of the lines by rebels.

Atlanta Hotel Mystery.

..Though Mrs. Applebaum is in jail in Atlanta to await the inquiry of the grand jury into the killing of her husband, J. Applebaum, a Chicago traveling salesman, the shooting of the salesman in a hotel early yesterday is not explained. Both suicide and murder theories have been advanced.

At the coroner's inquest the woman told of a quarrel and of being threatened with death by the man, who at 2 o'clock in the morning demanded possession of her diamond necklace and earrings. With a revolver, against her breast, she testified, he threatened:

"I t is 2 o'clock now. I'll give you just five minutes more to live."

"That is all I remember," she declared. "I don't think I shot him."

An occupant of the adjoining room called the clerk, who met Mrs. Applebaum, in negligee, on the stairs. She fainted in his arms. In the room he found Applebaum's partly clothed body on the floor, two bullet holes in the right arm and a third in the chest. The revolver lay several feet away, it is said, and there were no powder marks seen about the wounds.

Mrs. Applebaum has not yet been able to talk coherently about the tragedy.

She declined to discuss her past life further thon to say her parents live in Michigan. She married Applebaum twice, she said, first a year ago in New Orleans, and again since then, though she refused to give details. She spoke of another wife of Applebaum in Kansas City, who, according to dispatches, obtained a divorce a week ago Thursday.

"I've only known about her for a few weeks," the prisoner said. "Yesterday I learned from some of Applebaum's letters that he was engaged to marry a woman doctor in Saginaw, Mich., next April."

The Murder of Miss Singer.

A letter intercepted by the police, which is expected to prove an important factor in the trial of Charles Cramer, alias Conway, the circus clown, and his reputed wife, Mrs. Lillian Beatrice Ryall-Conway, for the murder of Sophia Singer, of Baltimore, was turned over to Assistant State's Attorney Fleming by Captain Nootbaar in Chicago. The missive was written by Conway and addressed to his mother in Lima, O.

It was this letter that was instrumental in the capture of the couple, and it was made public for the first time yesterday. In part, it read:

"I'm all right. Don't worry about reports in the newspapers about the killing. I had no intention of killing her. I figured only on wounding her. She had a razor. It was either her or me. She had previously attacked Warthem (Miss Singer's fiance) with a knife."

Prosecutor Fleming declared that the letter would be material in the state's case, in view of the fact that the defendants have repudiated their confessions, which they made following their arrest in Lima.

"Any evidence which the defense might introduce will be offset by this letter." Mr. Fleming said. "The letter proves conclusively that the murder was committed by Cramer, and that his supposed wife was implicated in it."

Attorneys for the defense have declared that they will attempt to prove that the confessions from the defendants were obtained by coercion.

Prosecutor Fleming declared he would prove that Mrs. Conway was not divorced from her first husband, who is a railroad fireman, and that if she was married to her codefendant the ceremony was a bigamous one. This point is of importance in the state's case, owing to the fact that if the circumstances are proved the woman will be able to take the witness stand against Conway, where it would be an impossibility if she were legally married to him. Eight jurors were obtained at the opening of the trial today.

Tucker Mentioned.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 26.—The name of Harry St. George Tucker, of Lexington and Norfolk, is suggested by the friends of that gentleman for the United States circuit judgeship to become vacant when Judge Nathan B. Goff becomes United States senator on March 5 in persuance of his election to that office by the West Virginia legislature last week. This is, of course, in the event that Mr. Tucker is not named by President-elect Wilson for a cabinet position, as has been urged by many people in and out of Virginia.

MRS. PANKHURST IS BROUGHT TO TRIAL

English Suffragette is Facing 14 Years' Penal Servitude.

IS DEFIANT AS EVER.

Prosecutor Bodkin Opens For Crown —Suffragettes Cut Wires at Telephone Station as Protest.

Epsom, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, much arrested leader of the British militant suffragettes today faced a 14 year's penal servitude for having instigated the bomb attack on the new country house of David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, on Walton Heath.

Ten wigged and gowned magistrates sat on the bench in Surry County Court, where Sir Vincent presiding, when Mrs. Pankhurst, smiling and apparently as defiant as ever, was led by two bailiffs into the prisoners dock.

The court room space set apart for spectators was packed to capacity with suffragettes, most of them wearing the yellow of the Woman's Social and Political Union and carrying "votes for women" banners. Extra bailiffs are on duty to prevent any outbreaks of applause or hisses that the women might attempt.

The basis for the prosecution of Mrs. Pankhurst is her own admission in her speech at Cardiff, Wales, that she assumed the responsibility for the explosion that wrecked a part of the Lloyd-George residence.

Prosecutor Bodkin opening for the Crown, described in detail the bomb outrage that blew up the servant's quarters of chancellor's new home.

"A more abominable and cruel outrage was never conceived," he thundered. "It was carried out admittedly at the defendant's instigation. She hreself says so. We have her words.

"She instigated a general warfare against property, its purpose to overawe the government. I emphasize that the accessory to a crime is equally guilty with the actual perpetrators of it."

Bodkin then read at length and caustically commented upon several of Mrs. Pankhurst's most bitter speeches in which she urged militancy, especially calling attention to the violent attacks on Chancellor Lloyd-George.

In conclusion Bodkin again quoted from Mrs. Pankhurst's Cardiff speech in which she accepted the responsibility for the Walton Heath explosion, and demanded her commitment for trial at the assizes.

Detailed evidence by neighbors and workmen then was introduced describing the explision.

Mrs. Pankhurst cross-examined some of the witnesses herself and had much to do with the conducting of her own defense.

Belfast, Feb. 25.—Suffragettes today cut the wires of more than a dozen public telephone stations. The raid was made as a protest against the trial of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst in England.

CASE OF ALLENS.

Expected That Governor Mann Will Dispose of Matter This Week.

Richmond, Feb. 26.—That a decision from Governor Mann in the Allen cases will be forthcoming this week is now believed to be a foregone conclusion, although the Governor had nothing to give out on the subject today.

This belief is based on the face that the Governor will be in Washington early next week in attendance upon the inaugural ceremonies and that the two Allens are scheduled to die in the electric chair the Friday following the induction of President Wilson into office.

Meanwhile, the condemned prisoners are anxiously awaiting word from him in their cells in the Virginia penitentiary not to mention thousands of others interested in their fate.

A movement towards the erection of of a third Baptist Church in Alexandria has taken shape, and the work of building the same will be commenced in a short time.

The congregation of Infant Baptist Church, which has recently been conducting services in a house on the south side of Prince street, between Patrick and Henry, will occupy the new building, which is to be known as the "John T. Nalls Memorial Church." W. L. Clark, will be the architect.

The site upon which the new church is to be erected is now occupied by a frame building in which Mr. C. J. Summers for many years conducted the drug business.

When this building shall have been erected Alexandria will have three Baptist Churches. The First Baptist Church on South Washington street, is one of the old places of worship of the city. The Second Baptist Church on north Columbus street, was formed several years ago.

ALLEGED SWINDLER.

Washingtonians Victimized—Believed To Have Worked Game In Alexandria.

The swindler who has been operating in Washington, using the inaugural parade as a bait, has also approached several persons in Alexandria with his scheme although none, so far, admit having giving the caller money. His plan is as follows:

Calling at the homes of persons in good circumstances, the man, according to the reports, tells a story to the effect that about ten or twelve years ago he had called at the same house and asked for money, or food. He now is well dressed and explans that he had "made a man of himself." In order to show his appreciation for the aid given the caller invites the householder to be his guest in his room at a hotel on Pennsylvania avenue, between John Marshall Place and 6th street, to view the inaugural parade. If the invitation is accepted the stranger departs. Later he returns and, saying he has spent more than he intended to entertain some guests, asks for a loan of $4 or $5. In many instances, it is said, the money was given him. It was also learned that the man "rented" his room to various persons to view the parade. After the room had been engaged these persons learned that they were victims of a swindler.

PERSISTENT ITINERANT.

One Legged Tramp Arrested Three Times - Wheeled to the Station House by Officers

Thomas Evans, a one-legged man, was arrested Monday night for vagrancy, and early yesterday morning was liberated with the understanding that he would leave the city. An hour later he was found on the street in a drunken condition. He could not walk, and officers were compelled to utilize a wheelbarrow in order to transport him to the station house. He was turned out yesterday afternoon, but later was again found in an intoxicated condition and was locked up the third time. He was brought before the Police Court this morning.

It was shown that after having been placed aboard an electric train for Washington the prisoner alighted at Spring Park and made his way back to the city and soon became drunk. The prisoner in his statement said he lost his leg while at work in a coal mine,and had been "on the road" fourteen years. He was at one time a member of Coxey's army. He claimed Massillion, Ohio, as his home. The police alleged that his proper name is Harry Corbett. Justice Caton ordered him to be held until 11 o'clock when he was again placed upon a train for Washington. Should he re-appear in this city he will be given a term in jail.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

CONGREGATION AMAZED.

Boy Delivers Message to Minister in Pulpit of Richmond Church.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 26.—"The Eternal Fitness of Things" was demonstrated beyond the shadow of a doubt Sunday morning during the course of a sermon on "Presumptuous Sin" at the Second Baptist Church.

For presumptive arrogance the average telegraph messenger boy held the blue ribbon of distinction, and when astride his bicycle delivering a message he is more to be feared than automobiles when driven by reckless chauffeurs. But for genuine unadulterated "cheek" in the discharge of duty a new "kid" in the service ran quickly to the head of the presumtious class last Sunday morning.

A telegram for the Rev. Dr. T. Claggett Skinner was received from Roanoke asking the minister to come to that city and preach a funeral Monday. The message was given to the new boy for delivery. The boy arrived at the church during the course of the morning service.

Dr .Skinner was in the midst of his sermon "Presumptious Sin" when the blue coated boy made his appearance. Without the slightest hesitation the younkster marched down the aisle and into the pulpit and delivered the message to the minister.

With a pleasant smile, the preacher took the telegram, signed for it read and answered it and then continued his sermon.

It is said the boy broke all bicycle records on his return to the office and it is certain he made a record for bone-head delivery.

SUICIDE OF DEPUTY CLERK.

A. C. Porter, Well Known Resident of Richmond Slashes His Throat.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 26.—Fearing he was going insane, Algernon C. ("Journey") Porter, a widely known city employe, slashed his throat with a razor early today, and died a few minutes later in his wife's arms.

Porter was 54 years old, and had been a deputy clerk of the chancery court for nearly twenty years. He was one of the familiar figures in and around the City Hall and one of the most popular men employed there.

For the last three weeks Porter has been a patient at Virginia hospital. He appeared to be suffering from acute melancholia. Though he was not subject to delusions of any kind, he seemed to live in dread of losing his mind.

Mrs. Porter constantly visited her husband at the hospital.On Monday she spent several hours at his bed side and departed about 6 o'clock, believing that his condition showed slight improvement. She reached their home at 6:30 o'clock. To her intense astonishment her husband put in his appearance at the house thirty minutes later. He said he was tired of remaining at the hospital and thought he could recover more quickly at the home.

Inquiry afterward developed that Porter had to leave the hospital with something akin to stealth as the doctors and nurses were all opoposed to his going away. He later cut his thoat.

Mrs. Short on Trial.

Luray, Va., Feb. 26.—Mrs. Myrtle Short was placed on trial in the Page county court yesterday charged with the killing of Hiram Getts, near Stanley, on the night of December 26, when Getts, with several companions, went to Mrs. Short's home and demanded to see her husband, Amos Short. Mrs. Short claims that the shot which killed Getts was fired to intimidate the party. Amos Short, the woman's hsuband, and Ashby Short, a brother, who are both blind, are now in the Page county jail, charged with infraction of the revenue laws.

RICHMOND MAN MISSING.

Former Well-Known Business Man Disappeared From Home.

Richmond, Feb. 26.—Members of the family of Henry Briel, 2501 Kensington Avenue, are much alarmed over his disappearance from home. Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock he left the house, and since that time nothing has been heard from him.

Mr. Briel is more than eighty years old, was for years engaged in business, and retired some time ago. His home life was pleasant and no cause is known for his leaving. His mind was clear and there was no reason for him to disappear without letting his family know.

Search has been and is being made for him, all his relatives and friends having been notified. His wife is living. When last seen he wore a dark suit and derby. He has a gray moustache and gray hair.

Information regarding him will be thankfully received at 2501 Kensington Avenue, or telephone Monroe 461.

DRUG CLERK'S FATAL ERROR.

Sent Bichloride of Mercury When Doctor Ordered Calomel.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 26.— A misunderstood prescription delivered over the telephone caused the death early yesterday morning of 4-year-old Robert LeMasurier, son of Captain and Mrs. Joseph LeMasurier, of 3127 West Franklin street. Dr. E. W. Gee, of 416 East Grace street, who had been treating the child for a minor stomach disorder, telephoned a prescription for calomel powders to the pharmacy of L. P. Fletcher, 2601 Park Avenue. The message was received by Mr. T. W. McCreary, 22 years old, an assistant registered pharmacist, who misunderstood Dr. Gee and prepared six doses of bichloride of mercury.

The poison was administered to the boy at intervals of half an hour by his father, and caused his death, though heroic efforts were made by physicians to save his life. As soon as the child died Dr. Gee reported the case to Coroner William H. Taylor, who will make a thorough inquiry into the affair this morning at 10 o'clock, when he will hold an inquest at the City Hall.

Surveys have been made in Brocks Gap by Baltimore and Ohio men.

Child Killed by Auto.

Lynchburg, Va., Feb. 26.—Julian, the 6-year-old son of P. L. Hawse, was killed yesterday evening, when he was run down by an automobile driven by Dr. W. H. Dew, a physician. The accident happened in Cabell street, where four accidents, two of them attended by fatalities, have occurred in 15 months. The child, starting across the street in front of the car, was knocked down and his head crushed, death being instantaneous.

EGGLESTON MAY NOT ACCEPT.

Joseph D. Eggleston, former superintendent of education of Virginia and now Southern superintendent of the rural education division of the federal bureau of education, will not accept the presidency of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, at Blacksburg, Va., unless it comes to him without opposition and unanimously. This statement is made upon the authority of Dr. Philander P. Claxton, commissioner of education of the United States, and Mr. Eggleston's chief and warm personal friend.

Dr. Claxton declares that Dr. Eggleston will remain in the educational service of the federal government, though his present position is only a temporary one. Dr. Claxton also declared that he does not believe that the Virginian will be able to get the presidency of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, as the successor of Dr. Paul B. Barringer, without opposition. He realizes that opposition is cropping out against him on account of the fact that Mr. Eggleston is not trained in engineering, agriculture and military science and tacties, but Dr. Claxton holds that his lack of training along those lines should not bar him, because the position is an executive and not an instructive one. Dr. Claxton also declared that he would be sorry to lose Mr. Eggleston from the federal service should another berth be offered him that is more attractive to him.

The position pays a salary of $4,000, and the man who lands the job has it for life unless he is removed for cause.

Salves Can't Cure Eczema

In regard to skin diseases, medical authorities are now agreed on this: Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid.

WASH THE GERMS OUT.

A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D.D.D. Prescription. This penetrates to the disease germs and destroys them, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 50 cent bottle will start the cure and give you instant relief.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommendating this D.D.D. Prescription to a skin sufferer here and there, and we want you to try it now on our positive pay guarantee. D.D.D. Soap keeps the pores clean; ask us.

LADIES URGE THE MEMORIAL BRIDGE.

The presence of a number of well-known ladies of Alexandria at the meeting this morning in Washington between the officers of the Mt. Vernon Avenue Association and the conference committee of the house on the public buildings bill, to which the memorial bridge appropriation is attached, as an amendment, argues well for the ultimate building o fthe bridge. Especially is this true when it is known that all of the ladies are members of the Daughters of the American Revolution and Mrs. William A. Smoot who was the speaker for the Association occupies a high position in its councils. There is nothing that the Daughters of the American of the American Revolution cannot accomplish when they set to work the 70,000 distinguished women which compose its ranks, and if they become thoroughly imbued with the idea that the Mt. Vernon Avenue must be built and along with it the Memorial bridge from Washington to Arlington, it is only a question of a few years before the work will be accomplished.

Mrs. Smoot made a graceful and clear presentation of the facts to the three congressmen comprising the house conferees this morning. She stated the position of the Daughters of the Revolution in reference to the avenue and bridge and said that every year their interest in the two projects was increasing.

AMBASSADOR WILSON A DISAPPOINTMENT.

The impression is being gradually forced upon the American people that Ambassador Wilson, representing this country in these critical times is not measuring up to the standard required for man in his position. There has been little to criticise in his actions because he has done practically nothing in the past two years, since trouble arose in that coutnry. But during the last few days there have been several little things crop out which indicate that Ambassador Wilson is too anxious to put Mexico in a more favorable light than it deserves. His hurried assurance yesterday that the entire country is peaceful and that there was no higher up plot behind the assassination of Madero and Suarez looks like an attempt on his part to prejudice public opinion in this country and forstall the development of the real facts in the case.

We are not prepared to go as far as the Washington Times which declares that Wilson sees Mexico through the eyes of the old regime of Porfiro Diaz and that he has been incapable of understanding what Madero and the Madero movement were about The Times continues: "The poverty, degradation ,ignorance, and vassalage of the Mexican peons have meant nothing to him. The patriotism and aspiration of a man willing to give position, ease, fortune, and life to serve them because they were human beings and his countrymen—all this means about as much to Henry Lane Wilson as nebular hypothesis to a cannibal king of Timbuctoo.

No wonder the President elect cavalierly replies that he isn't interested in keeping in touch with the official advices from Mexico. If he maanges not to know anything whatever about Henry Lane Wilson's opinions, he may escape being misled.

The explanations thus far given out by the Huerta administration have been so hopelessly conflicting and lacking in verisimilitude that nobody execpt Mr. Wilson now has the least doubt Madero and Suarez were murdered, and there was the best authority and most careful preparation for the crime."

SENATOR KERN OPPOSES MEMORIAL.

Senator John W. Kern, of Indiana candidate for vice-president on the Democratic ticket four years ago, at a banquet given in Washington last night by the members of the Department of the Potomac, G. A. R. to Judge Alfred B. Beers, of Bridgeport, Conn., commander-in-chief of the Grand Army, voiced opposition to any memorial road between Washington and Richmond, with a monument to a Confederate leader, until every veteran was free from want and the nation's debt paid. He said:

"The time has not arrived for the building of the highway from Washington to Richmond, wit hthe monument to a great Confederate leader at the other end. Never with my consent will that work be done until every Union veteran is free from want and the nation's debt paid."

Senator Kern is the would-be successor of Senator Martin for the position of leadership of the Senate. His words are significant. Should the country wait until the national debt shall have been paid for the building of the memorial road, its construction will be synchronous with the day of judgment.

Senator Kern is a successor of Morton who figured conspicuously in reconstruction days. He, too, was from Indiana.

The movement for the construction of the peace memorial should appeal to all who are at this day rejoicing over a reunited county.

The Potomac was the dividing line in 1861, and the statute of a hero of the north and one of the south at each aproach to th eroad is a happy conception, which however fails to appeal to a man who would be a leader of Democracy in the highest branch of Congress.

Wilson's Cabinet.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 26.—Five members of President-elect Wilson's cabinet are definitely selected and two men to whom places have been offered have declined them.

Those who declined were Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, who refused to be secretary of War on the ground that he is a Quaker and Mayor Newton D. Baker, of Cleveland, Ohio who refused because he said he wanted to stay in Cleveland and work out progressive reforms under way there.

The five men definitely selected are W. J. Bryan, secretary of State.

William G. McAdoo, secretary of the Treasury.

Lewis D. Brandeis, attorney general.

Albert S. Burleson, representative from Texas, postmaster general.

Josephus Daniels, of North Carolina,, secretary of the navy.

This information both as to the declinations and the five definite selections, comes from Trenton in such a way that it's reliability cannot be questioned.

Strange Suicide.

Philadelphia, Feb. 26.—Recording the pulsations after he had sunk an instrument made by his own hand into his heart, is the manner in which Karl Schnyder, 48, well-known surgercal instrument manufacturer, chose to end his suffering of months on account of ill-health. When found in his shop Schneyder had a stethescope clasped to his heart and a long amutating knife stained with blood on the floor nearby. Several pieces of paper on which were recorded the heart beats from 1 to 26, were discovered near his hand.

FARMER BROWN.

Up from the farm came old man Brown
On his regular monthly trip to town.
Ten long miles, when the roads are rough,
Makes a journey a wee bit tough,
But devil a bit the old man cared,
The rougher the weather the better he fared,
And he had to come to town to buy
The stuff that the old farm couldn't supply.

He was up and at work before the sun
Arose to find his chores all done.
He had fed his stock and hitched up a pair,
The sorrel colt and the old bay mare.
Then he slapped the lines over Jim and Kate,
And started out through the garden gate.
He buttoned his coat up 'round his chin
And carefully tucked his whiskers in.

When he stopped his team at the market place,
Ruddy and red was the old man's face.
He put on his spec's with a sort of sigh
And looked at his list of things to buy,
Yarn and muslin and calico,
Blankets and oil and a grubbing-hoe,
Salts and sugar and banjo strings
And a half-a-dozen of women's things.

Some wire fencing, a single-tree,
A can of paint and coffee and tea,
A book for Sally, a shawl for Ma
And a plug of tobacco for son-in-law,
And, when his task was most complete,
He stopped at a place on the market street
To add to his list (now please don't frown)
A jug of liquor for old man Brown.

Then he stood and watched the passing show
Of women going to and fro,
As a fine one passed he'd wag his head
And smile, for he liked a thoroughbred.
When the town clock showed that the hour was six,
The farmer climbed to his old farm fix
And chuckled a little, did old man Brown,
And said, "It's darned nice to get to town."

It has seemed like an awfully short winter for those fellows who put sixty day notes in the bank just before Christmas.

Just step right up and ask the Clerk of the Court what he wanted Mr. Taft's signature for, anyway.

We say this in confidence, as it was told to us, if some of our town gossips could see the last train get in from Washington on Saturday nights, some well-known citizens would have to withdraw their membership from the church.

Bill was jus' as full o' tricks
As a circus horse,
Still the kid was only six,
That's quite young o' course,
An' it seems a little mean,
They're mad as they kin be,
Jus' cause he put Paris Green
In his daddy's tea.

ROLLER SKATING ON STREETS.

(Communicated.)

Must we always be behind the times in Alexandria? Shall we never awaken to the fact that this is the year 1913 instead of 1813? When the whole world around us is legislating for the children, here in Alexandria is an element that would drive them from the town, an element that prefers grass and trees to children.

Other cities are spending thousands on recreation centers and play grounds. They are using their school houses as social centers, outiside of school hours, and providing good lectures for their children.

What is Alexandria doing for her children? In the matter of schools we are progressing, without doubt, but children must have play as well as study. We are not ready yet to direct their play centers, but meantime, there is no form of outdoor sport less harmful to all concerned, than roller skating.

In Washington, an attempt was made some time ago to prevent skating on the sidewalks and, we are told, such an outcry was raised against the attempt, that the subject is not likely to come up again. O nSeventh street only is it forbidden there.

Are not children as valuable to this city as to Washington? And is it not worth while to give longer and more serious consideration to this matter before we forbid them the use of the sidewalks?

A MOTHER.

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles.

Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint.

I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands.

Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.

FLIPPANCY IN GIRLS

By BARBARA BOYD.

"It's all very well," the quiet girl was saying to the little group of intimate friends, "for mother and aunt and grandmother to insist on a girl's being ladylike and retiring and modest and all that. But if she does, she gets left."

"What's the trouble, Phoebe?" chorused the group.

"No particular trouble," blithely returned Phoebe. "But I was just thinking such advice is out of date. If a girl takes it nowadays, it'll make her a wallflower and eventually an old maid, or, I suppose I should say, bachelor girl."

"Something has gone wrong," said one of the girls sagely.

"Did you know Sue Dickinson is married again?" asked Phoebe.

"No!" ejaculated the others. "Who to?"

"Kenneth Leaverett."

"You don't mean it!"

"Yes, I do. And that's what set me to thinking upon old-time advice. In spite of everything her parents said, she ran away, you remember, and married Ned Willoughby. Then she quarreled with him and finally got a divorce. And now in less than a year she is married again. And here are all of us, quiet, ladylike, well-bred girls, hanging yet on the parental stem."

"Huh!" said one indignantly. "I wouldn't want to marry either Ned Willoughby or Kenneth Leaverett."

"That may be," replied Phoebe. "But even if you had, you wouldn't have had the chance. You're not forward enough. I don't want to get into personalities," she said hastily, as she saw a gleam in the other girl's eye. "I'm just drawing deductions. As you know, I was invited to a house party last week, out at Whitney's perfectly superb home. And who do you think was the most popular girl there, quiet, well-bred little me or charming Alice Markham? Not a bit of it. It was a loud, giggling individual who talked constantly, laughed constantly, played jokes on the men, kept herself in every way possible in the center of the stage. The men simply flocked around her. They hovered over her like bees over a flower. And the rest of us sat on in wellbred and ladylike quiet and talked to each other."

"That sort of thing doesn't last," observed one.

"She had a good time while it did last, though. And that's more than the rest of us did."

"I wouldn't care for the attentions of men like that," said another.

"Oh, they were good enough, as men go," replied Phoebe. "You have to take them as they are. You can't make them to order."

"It seems to me, then," said a fourth, "that the men are to blame for all the forwardness and flippancy in girls, and the way they dress and all the other things they do that they shouldn't. It would be sort of comfortable to blame the men for it all, wouldn't it?"

"They won't care," quoth Phoebe "They'll go right on showering all their attentions on the girl with the most false hair and the biggest hats and the tightest skirts and the readiest laugh, whether there is any thing to laugh at or not."

"Let them," interrupted another. "There's something more to life than merely pleasing the men. If I prefer refinement and good breeding and good taste, or think they are right and their opposites wrong, I am not going to throw them over merely to win masculine favor. I think we ought to get down to the bedrock fac of what is right and worth while, not merely to whether our conduct will win fleeting popular favor. We want those things in our character that are going to give us lasting satisfaction. And, believe me, none of us here would find lasting satisfaction in the regard of men who like vulgarity in dress and manner. And, believe me too, the nicest men don't. And even if they seem to for a little while, it is either out of idle curiosity, or to put in time, or a mere passing fancy I'll stick to the advices of mothers and aunts and grandmothers. They have been observing human nature a much longer time than we have, and they know how it wears."

"Well," said Phoebe, "I suppose the girl with high standards of conduct is of more value to society than the girl without them. And I suppose it is worth while to be of some value somewhere."

"And I'd rather have my self respect," said another, "than the attention of a dozen men for doing some thing that I thought beneath me."

Sergeant Didn't "Sabby."

Sergt. Mike Drew was at one time a quartermaster sergeant in the Philippines. He believed he had a working knowledge of the language of the Islands, which the soldiers call "Bamboo Spanish."

One day a party of tourists were trying to get two Filipinos to understand that they wanted some trunks taken down to the station. The tourists did everything they knew to get this instruction into the heads of the brown brothers, but it was useless.

Sergeant Drew then offered his services.

"Say, you," he said, turning to the natives, "when the whistle blows on the railroad train, too hoo, you get your bull cart, moo moo, and take these trunks down to the station before the engine starts, ding ding. Savvy?"

"Yo no saves," the natives replied.

"What!" roared Sergeant Drew "Don't you understand your own language?"

MAY BE HELPFUL TO COOK

Some Hints as to the Best Methods of Preparing Food for the Household.

When fish of unpronounced flavor is to be boiled it is improved by the addition of vinegar to the water. If the fish is inclined to be tasteless half a pint of vinegar to an ordinary kettle of water will not be too much.

An old New England housekeeper has a cupful of rich, hot cream ready to stir into the baked beans when they come from the oven and before they go to the table.

Creamed toast in one family is prepared in this way: The bread is toasted and kept hot in a covered dish. Then a white sauce is made in the usual proportion of a cupful of rich milk or cream to a tablespoonful each of butter and flour, with salt to season. At the last, when the sauce is thick, two tablespoonfuls of grated cheese are stirred in, a teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce and a dash of paprika. It is poured over the toast.

To prepare a rice omelet as one cook does it, make a white sauce with a cupful of milk and two level tablespoonfuls each of cornstarch and butter. Stir in three well-beaten yolks and a cupful of hot boiled rice. Fold in the stiffly-beaten whites of three eggs, season with paprika and a trace of nutmeg, and cook in the regular omelet pan. Serve with red currant jelly.

RIGHT WAY TO PULL CANDY

Confection May Easily Be Made Tough If It Is Wrongly Handled—The Flavoring.

Here is a recipe that pulls well when rightly done.

Molasses Candy.—One cup of molasses, three cups of sugar, one cup of water, one cup of vinegar When boiled up, one-half cup of melted butter. When done take off the stove and put one-half even teaspoon of soda in and stir briskly, turn at once in greased pan, watch the edges and turn into the center as it cools When ready to handle altogether, proceed as above. Test in the usual way when done. Drop a little in cold water, and when brittle it is done.

Home Helps.

To clean lacquered brass wash in hot water, using soap if necessary Polishes should be applied to unlacquered brass only.

Folded newspapers should be kept handy in the kitchen, and these placed under pots and kettles. If this is done every day when the pans are taken from the stove no grease spots will mar the kitchen table.

Avoid open shelves in a kitchen or the dust soon gathers there. A wide window shade is splendid to keep out the dust, and far more sanitary than a curtain.

Croquettes to be fried in deep fat should stand for 15 minutes in the warm kitchen before being cooked This will help the browning process.

Bunny Sandwiches.

Sandwiches attractively served are always appetizing, and for a gathering of little folks they should be novel in form. These are cut in the shape of rabbits; the bread, thinly sliced, is cut into shape by the use of a cardboard pattern. Half the number are spread with a chocolate-and nut filling, and then topped with the remaining bunnies.

A bit of melted chocolate is then dropped on to simulate an eye. Any other animal shape may be used instead of the bunny, and the same idea may be applied to any odd-shaped sandwiches that you can cut out with a knife or a cutter.—Harper's Bazar

Date Cake.

One cup brown sugar, one cup shortening, one-half cup warm water, two cups rolled oats, two and one-half cups flour, one tablespoonful soda.

Filling.—Stone one pound of dates and cook with one-half cup water and one cup granulated sugar until soft. Spread dough in thin layer on bottom of pan, then spread with the date mixture and cover with another thin layer of the dough. When baked, cut in three-inch squares.

To Clean Mica.

To clean the darkened sheets of mica in your coal heater, await a time when the fire is out or very low. Then sponge them off with a soft piece of sponge dipped in diluted vinegar. If the black does not come off at once let it soak a little. Touch very gently as they break easily. Even though badly smoked they will become quite clear by this treatment if a little patient care is given. Let them dry gently before exposing to the heat of the fire.

Mock Rabbit.

Mix pound of raw chopped beef and as much lean veal, also chopped with four eggs, one cup breadcrumbs a little salt, pepper, nutmeg, parsley thyme and a spoon of onion juice Beat all well and shape on a dish into an oval loaf. Cover with egg and breadcrumbs; put in a pan lined with slices of pork; baste it in oven while baking it. Bake forty minutes. Serve hot or cold in slices.

Grape Sauce.

Squeeze the pulp from the skins of grapes, then cook the pulp and strain so as to get the seeds out, then put back on the stove, put in sugar, cinnamon, clove and mace and the skins, cook all together, put in a little water. This recipe is made wholly by taste as regards quantity. It is very nice with meats.

Terrible Prophecy.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—It wont be long, scientifically speaking, before the human race will be hairless, toothless and toeless. This is the opinion of Professor Fred. Starr, of the University of Chicago, expressed before his class in anthropology.

Hats, shoes, and cooked food are the evil devices that will bring about the "new man."

Declared Not Guilty.

Desertions From Strikers' Ranks.

Akron, O., Feb. 25.—Action by the state legislature made in refusing to appoint a committee to investigate conditions in Akron's rubber factories, and failure by members of the state board of arbitration to make any move to bring striking rubber workers and employers together, was followed today by the first heavy desertions from the strikers' ranks.

Estimates based on counts made at the larger plants today indicate that approximately 2,500 strikers have returned to work. This reduces the number of strikers to about 15,000.

MUSTEROLE
No Plaster! No Blister!

Everybody knows how the good old fashioned mustard plaster relieves a cold, an ache or a pain.

Your mother and your grandmother always applied it. The plaster burned awfully. But it surely brought relief.

MUSTEROLE is the same remedy without the plaster and without the blister.

MUSTEROLE is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard. You don't have to bother with a cloth. You simply rub Musterole on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and the pain is gone!

Not a blister is left, even on tender skin! Instead it has a delicious, comforting effect.

There is nothing like MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsilitis, Croup, Stiff, Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it prevents pneumonia). Millions of jars of MUSTEROLE are sold annually. It is a staple in the large hospitals. Doctors and nurses use it and recommend it to patients. Ask your doctor.

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the Musterole Company, Cleveland, O., and we will mail you a jar postpaid.

Doctors tell How Musterole Relieves.

Dr. J. P. Frey, Chicago, Ill., says: "I prescribe your Musterole every day. Use it in all cases of alveolar abscess and inflammation."
